“ I met Angela in the schoolyard of Our Lady of Lourdes on the very first day of first grade. We were standing in line to enter class when I heard someone call out, “Angela!” I turned around—thinking someone was calling me—and there she was. Her mom was actually speaking to her, but she looked at me, smiled, and said, “Is your name Angela too?” That simple exchange sparked a beautiful friendship that carried us through so much of life.

From our earliest adventures, learning how to pluck our eyebrows and experimenting with makeup, to the bigger milestones like weddings, baptizing my daughter, and even owning a business together, Angela and I shared so many chapters of life. We laughed endlessly, especially during our first movie with our moms (a memory that still makes me smile), and stood by each other through both joy and sorrow.

Though life took us in different directions and we experienced a falling out, Angela was never far from my heart. I recently learned of her passing through her niece, Christina, and I was heartbroken. I only wish I had known sooner that she was sick, perhaps it could have been a moment for healing, for grace, and for reconnection.

Despite the years and the silence, I carry deep gratitude for the time we shared. Our bond was real and meaningful, and I trust that in God’s mercy, she now knows just how much she was loved.

Rest peacefully, Angela. May your soul be surrounded by light, and may you rejoice in the embrace of your beloved father. Until we meet again—know that we’ll always have American Graffiti, and that your memory lives on in the quiet places of my heart....Forever and always, Angela

“The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.” — Psalm 34:18

Heavenly Father, Receive Angela into Your eternal care. Surround her with Your light and love. May she find peace in Your presence and be reunited with the loved ones who went before her. And may those of us who grieve find comfort in the memories we shared, and in the hope of seeing each other again. Amen.

“ I’m sorry to here this news. Angela was the kindest person I’ve known. We really became friends during high school and beyond. All the laughter with all our friends, the dinners and dancing. You will truly be missed. My condolences to the entire family. Especially to her twin John and her son. May you RIP dear Angela.

“ Angela was always the life of the party. She sang at our cousins party and I was her backup singer. Lots of laughs
