“ To the Pohren Family ,

I am so sorry to hear of your loss.

Chris was a great friend growing up in Wantagh. We went to Catholic grammar school and High School together. We were also in Boy scouts together.

Chris was one of my buddies who ventured out on an adventures road trip to Washington State after gradation in 1979. We always had great times together. I still live in Washington to this day.

I was proud of Chris when he joined the Police force and thank him for his service. He will be missed.

Please email me so I can send a mass card to the appropriate place.
