

Irma Schiffino

August 15, 1927 - January 6, 2025

Irma was a kind soul and loving mother, devoted wife, grandmother and great grandmother. After the passing of her husband in the Dominican Republic she moved to New York and resided with her daughter Virginia and son in law Lou until her passing. She loved to knit, cook, spend time with family and friends and watch her telenovelas. She will be forever missed.

Previous Events

Funeral Mass

JAN 17. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

St. Frances de Chantal R.C. Church
1309 Wantagh Avenue
Wantagh , NY 11793

Flower Arrangements can be sent to the St. France's de Chantal R.C. Church address.

Tribute Wall

JU

“ My grandmother was a strong, yet modest woman. Never boastful. Always humble and kind to everyone that met her. She taught me so many things with just very few words. She was a rare and beautiful soul. May she rest in peace in the Lord’s arms. I will always carry your memory in my heart.

Julissa - January 10, 2025 at 12:48 AM

CL

“ Irma was a kind soul and loving mother, devoted wife, grandmother and great grandmother. After the passing of her husband she moved to New York and resided with her daughter Virginia and son in law Lou until her passing. She loved to knit, cook, spend time with family and friends and watch her telenovelas. She will be forever missed.

Christina Roseto Lowett - January 10, 2025 at 12:13 AM

JU

My grandmother was a strong, yet modest woman. Never boastful. Always humble and kind to everyone that met her. She taught me so many things with just very few words. She was a rare and beautiful soul. May she rest in peace in the Lord’s arms. I will always carry your memory in my heart.

Julissa - January 10, 2025 at 12:46 AM

CM

*Special love and prayers to Virginia and your family.
Love,
Carolann*

Carolann Masone - January 14, 2025 at 11:55 AM

JV

Mis mas sinceras condolencias a la familia Schiffino, departe de la Familia Valerio

James Valerio - January 15, 2025 at 10:43 AM

VR

Thank you everyone ❤️

Virginia Roseto - February 05, 2025 at 01:16 AM

CL

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Christina Roseto Lowett - January 10, 2025 at 12:04 AM