“ Jack, you'll be mist. We haven't seen each other in years, but the high school memories of all us hanging out and partying and laughing our butts off in the woods, like I said, you'll surely be missed. Our prayers go out to you and your family.

“ My brother Jack was easily one of my favorite people in this life. He was a person I was excited to reach out to with good news and a person I could count on when things weren't so great. He lived a crazy life and offered really incredible, he was also the guy I could tell anything to without judgement. He had so much love to give, never stopped joking and had an infectious laugh that I'll never forget. He will be greatly missed but I know he in a better place now.
