“ Debra Sottile lit a candle in memory of Laura Anne Riccio

Debra Sottile - February 03 at 11:45 AM

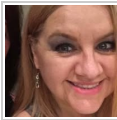

“ I remember how from the first day Desiree introduced me to her mom, I felt nothing but loved by her. That love never stopped, I feel like it only got stronger and stronger. She had one of the biggest hearts I believe anyone could have. She will be missed greatly but her memories will continue to live on.

My dad and Laura's mom were brother and sister. After attending Laura's 3rd birthday party, that night my mom went to hospital to give birth to me. For almost 69yrs she and I shared this day. As kids we shared special moments, holidays etc. Going with Laura and her sister Debbie I went to my first movie.. This year will feel rather odd not wishing each other a Happy Birthday.. Rest easy cousin, you will be surely missed.

I worked with Laura at Advantage Nissan in 2007. I laughed so, so much with her! She always spoke lovingly of her husband that passed and her daughter. I will miss her.
