“ On March 23,2024 my beloved father passed peacefully in company of his loved ones. It is with great sadness to have lost him, but he will now join his parents and other loved ones in the golden gates. He will always be remembered in our hearts for being a brave, resilient human being. He was full of life, he installed great values to all of us and was very influential with his teachings. He enjoyed reading books of some of the greatest philosophers and encouraged us to do so. He was our biggest supporter when it came to education, he believed in us and pushed us to be great at everything. Reading was always his fundamental. It's something that is embedded in us for life. He enjoyed bullfighting as a young man and did it was grace and elegance. He was a true hero. He was tough, resilient and a true fighter until the end. He pulled through any adversity and did it calmly and diplomatically. Bullfighting was one of his passions, but he also enjoyed listening to salsa music, going to museums, concerts and attending family events. He leaves behind his lovely wife: Martha Ortiz, his son Christian Ortiz and his daughter Catherine Ortiz. His deceased parents: Luis A Ortiz, María Laura Ortiz. His deceased grandma Adelaida Gamboa. His deceased sister Fabiola Manzano. He leaves behind his sisters Gloria Gutierrez, Zoila Robles and brother Mario Ortiz and all his nieces, nephews and cousins, etc. My Dearest father this is a farewell and not a goodbye until we meet again. With much love and admiration you will light the way and guide us through these difficult times. We love you endless and you will forever remain in our hearts. Sending you much love, peace and tranquility as you enter the golden gates. May God's light shine upon you and show you the way. Love you always and forever my hero. Rest in peace. 🙏🏻✝️🕊️❤️💕
