“ I met Manny in 1983. We hit it off right away. We, we were funny and stupid all the time. He was my Foreman, my best Friend. I will never forget him. The love he had for his wife and his children were second to none. I have so many wonderful memories of him and his family. I wish them Peace & Love. Life is so short and eternity is so long to get it wrong. Praise the Lord Jesus Christ pray to him and pray for Manuel that he is in heaven and in peace. I will pray for Manuel and his family until my last breath on earth.
I love him like a brother and I will miss him very dearly .

“ I was extremely fortunate to work with Manny on a formative project in my early career. He took time out of his schedule to give me some extremely helpful and encouraging lifelong advice I won't forget. Manny was a true supporter of young men and women coming up in construction and his warmth and generosity will be remembered by many. I am very saddened, will miss him and am praying for his family.

That is so nice what you have written about Manuel. But the young manny would have made me shoot your work Boots on the ceiling just to get a laugh. And you are right, he was a loving and generous. May his soul rest in peace.

“ It's hard to find the right words to honor a man like Manny, someone whose presence was felt the moment he walked into the room.

For 21 years, Manny wasn't just a co-worker to me—he was a good friend. Manny always had a way of looking out for people.

I am incredibly grateful for the years I had with Manny. He enjoyed food and life. I'll miss all the great times and many laughs we enjoyed. -Bob Benziger

“Manny, You will be so missed. I still can't grasp that your gone. I will still play your number 369. When I would see you and you would bust me you made my day. You were a Father to my son. You believed in my son. Manny, until we meet again.

“Dad, our lives were very full until your recent passing. You gave us everything you could until your last day. Many people say they have the best Dad and I know we definitely did. We will miss you in our hearts and minds forever. You made everyone laugh and always tried your best. You cared for so many people and always wanted to help everyone. You were taken from us too soon that it still hasn't sunk in yet. I'm happy that you lived life on your terms as you always told us "Life is Short". Until we meet again. Love always, Joanne.

“ Manny, In a business where a lot of people try and pull the wool over your eyes, no one could ever fool you, and I always got it straight from you. You never pulled punches, always came out with the cold hard truth, no matter how painful it was sometimes. I could not have completed One Hotel without you. You were the best at what you did. You'll be missed.

“ To My True Friend Manny:

I will always remember our special relationship. You were a great guy in your profession and your personal life. We've had so many discussions in confidence and expressed our common ideas many times. I will miss the every day conversations about business and family. We went through a couple of years of rough times and together we overcame them. May you rest forever in peace. LOVE YOU MUCH

“ I've had the pleasure of knowing Manny for 20 years.

Once I retired from CNY we grew even closer having a contest about my pool vs his and my vegetable garden vs his. Needless to say my house came with a pool so my good buddy built one bigger. I could never compete with the volume of tomatoes he got out of his plants. Many, many shared in his bounty.

I will miss the daily chats about all kinds of subjects and the follow-up calls as news developed. He was particularly interested in what national or international day it was. My wife's was always Pi Day 3/14. He laughed at donut day or eggplant day

Sometimes Josephine and he would be in the car and call while Fran and I were driving somewhere but they were either driving to Home Depot or the diner. The big question of the day was "What's for dinner?" He reveled in meals from his garden and of course, Josephine is a terrific cook and laundry doer. She finds that her Zen place calming herself.

Manny was a calming influence on everyone at work. He had an answer for every situation. He took my son-in-law Luke under his wing and taught him so much and calmed him during the many construction crises that occurred explaining they weren't really that bad.

I will miss you my buddy so much. Until we see each other again.
