

Michael A. Pagano Jr.

September 16, 1939 - January 8, 2026

It is with great sadness that the family of Michael A. Pagano Jr. announces his passing on January 8, 2026, at the age of 86. A resident of Kings Park, NY, Michael passed away leaving behind a legacy of service, humor, and deep devotion to his family.

Born in the Bronx on September 16, 1939, Michael was the son of the late Michael A. Pagano Sr. and Sally Pagano. He was the brother of Eileen Tedone (Vincent), Robert Pagano (Donald), Stephen Pagano (Kathleen), and the late Mariann Carter (James).

A proud veteran, Michael served in the United States Navy from 1959 to 1962. His military service remained a point of great pride throughout his life. Professionally, Michael was known as an expert bartender—a role that suited his quick wit and social nature—and in his later years, he enjoyed his time driving a limousine.

Michael's vibrant personality was defined by his love of music and his beautiful singing voice. An avid sports fan, he could often be found cheering on the New York Yankees or spending a quiet afternoon on the golf course.

On September 8, 1991, Michael married his dear wife, JoAnn. He was a devoted stepfather to John Rosati (Nancy), Billy Rosati (Alisa), and Linda Kennedy (Joe). He took immense pride in his grandchildren: Andrew, William, Alex, Grace, Breana, Jack, and Joseph. Above all, Michael will be remembered most for the tender and loving way he cared for JoAnn.

A burial with full military honors will take place at Calverton National Cemetery this Wednesday, January 14th. May God bless his memory.
