“ Our boys & families grew up together. Going to & supporting all sorts of sporting & team events...then school events...then, eventually weddings. We remember fondly this time of growth, learning things together, sharing & camaraderie that we all wish now could have lasted a lot longer. May God hold you close and comfort you gently as you deal with your loss. In prayer and sympathy, Betty & Bill Chatfield

“ My favorite memory of Nanci is when Cara was still in a baby swing and I came over her house to visit. As we sat in the kitchen having coffee, she was painting Christmas ornaments while all four boys were upstairs. The noise upstairs sounded like WW2 was taking place up there. I asked her what was going on up there and she said the boys are taking a nap. I laughed so hard over that. It amazed me how calm and happy she was painting away. God Bless You Nanci. You were truly a beautiful person. R.I.P.
