I was Paul's caretaker two days a week, but more importantly he was a friend. Meeting him when I was just 13 through my dear friend Karen. We shared so many beautiful moments, laughing over lunch, coffee, and of course, his favorite a bagel with butter! We watched old movies, discussed history, and talked business, he taught me so much. He had a brilliant mind for numbers, a kind heart, and always a true gentleman. One of my favorite memories with Paul was as he sat in his favorite reclining chair, He would say to me, "let me rest my eyes for 20 minutes before we head to Marion's!" That's how I'll always remember, Paul, peaceful, content, and full of warmth. I will miss you so, my friend... Godspeed Paul. Linda Vallez

“ RIP, Uncle Paulie. I'll hold onto our memories of all our visits with you and Aunt Betty when we'd visit Jim's mom and dad in Copiague years ago. You'll all be together now. You will be sorely missed.
