

Thomas Catanzaro

December 29, 1960 - July 5, 2025

We gather here today to honor the life of Thomas Catanzaro, who left us on July 5, 2025, surrounded by the love of his family.

Born on December 29, 1960, Thomas enriched our lives for nearly 65 years. As we reflect on the memories we shared with him, we celebrate a life well-lived, marked by dedication, love, and a passion for sports. Thomas was married to his beloved wife, Kathleen Catanzaro for over 30 years. Together, they built a beautiful family, and he took immense pride in his three daughters, Kaitlynn, Meaghan, and Lauren. Their lives were his greatest achievements, and he cherished every moment spent with them. Thomas was not only a family man but also a hardworking individual who dedicated himself to his career and his loved ones. He instilled the values of perseverance and dedication in his family, teaching them the importance of hard work and commitment. His legacy will continue to inspire them for generations to come.

Beyond his family, Thomas had a passion for sports, particularly for the New York Yankees and New York Jets. He found joy in cheering for his teams, and these moments brought him closer to his loved ones, as they shared in the excitement and camaraderie of the games.

Though he has been preceded in death by his parents, Edilio and Florence Catanzaro,

Thomas leaves behind a loving brother, Ronald Catanzaro, along with many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will forever cherish the memories they created with him. His kindness, humor, and unwavering support will be deeply missed by all who knew him. Today, as we say our goodbyes, let us remember Thomas Catanzaro not only for the life he lived but for the love he shared and the impact he made on each of us. May we carry his spirit forward in our hearts and strive to honor his memory through our actions and deeds. Rest in peace, Thomas. You will always be loved and remembered.
