JE

“ I remember when I was in 8th grade he was drafted into the army. He was stationed at Fort Huachuca (?) in Arizona. He would write letters to me. I felt so special that he would take time to write to his much younger sister. He would ask me about school and how I was doing. He was so honest about his feelings serving and how he hated where he was stationed. It was so hot there and he routinely had to be on guard overnight. He was lonely. The thing that touched me about it was in every letter he gave me positive encouragement. Even in that environment he tried to be hopeful. I loved him for that.
