“ My dearest Enza, you have been sorely missed and i still think of you. i knew you for over 20 years, since 1997. The last 15 years we were more than best friends, ci chiamavamo tre volte al giorno per consigliarci l'un l'altro e tu sapevi tutto di me e io sapevo tutto di te. non ero al corrente di averti persa ed essere stato all'oscuro mi duole..Ma io ti ho ricercata, come sempre, i nostri soliti litigi e i tira e molla continui, che comunque si placavano sempre e poi tornavamo a stringerci forte.

I nostri amici in questa assenza nella quale non ci parlavamo, mi chiedevano di te, ..e ricercandoti.. cosi' ho scoperto della tua morte. Ad aprile casualmente andai dal Dottore, che si chiamava George Noto, e dopo tre operazioni che mi fece, mi rimaneva in mente di chiamarti, ma come vedo eri gia' morta.

Come il solito pensavo di raccontarti tante storie, tu eri come un libro aperto...

Il mio piu' grande rimpianto e' che ti ho ricercata troppo tardi... e tutta la mia famiglia ti pensa tanto... nel mio telefono ci sono e sarranno per sempre i tuoi due numeri.

Le Mie piu' sentite condoglianze Giuseppina, Filippo e i quattro nipoti

“ You were my best friend, Nonna and so much more. I still can't believe you are gone. You lived life on your terms and always said "No Regrets". We will forever miss you. Until we meet again, love always Joanne.

“ Enza was the absolute best friend of my grandmother, Graziella DiTuri. Through the years she was like a sister to my grandmother, and then became like another grandmother to me. She was always there for me, as she was for my grandmother. We spoke on the phone daily and she would give me the best advice and words of encouragement when life got tough. She always told me she loved me like her own grandchild and always was there to listen. Recently, I had my son, and she was always so happy to receive his picture in the mail or get updates on how much he is growing and changing from day to day. She had a heart of gold. Just a few days ago I spoke to her on the phone and then I called a few days later over and over and there was no response anymore. I cannot believe I found this obituary and she is gone. I loved her so much and am heartbroken. I send my deepest condolences to the family for the loss of a remarkable woman.

My deepest condolences to the Noto family, she was a remarkable caring woman, always gave me the greatest advice, would cry on the phone with me, she had so much empathy. Enza you were healthy and full of life, I can't believe your gone. My deepest condolences to Josephine and Philip , her children and all her grandchildren. A fine example of a strong, independent woman. Tomorrow isn't promised to no one, strange she passed few months after my mom. I called her to tell her my mom was in a coma, she was devastated, I'm sure you were both reunited in heaven 🙏 Riposa in Santa pace, anima Bella💔
