“ It took me a good while to come here and speak on behalf of my dear Sister-friend Vivian. She was such a beautiful chocolate ray of sunshine. So those of us who worked with her back at Community Mediation Services, Inc.

I can't begin to count the laughter we shared, the tears we cried, the plans we made, etc. The job events, the kids parties, the holidays, the phone calls all added up to a top tier friendship!! If you knew me. You knew I had a friend named vivian that I adored and if you knew her, you probably knew of me as well.

To say I will miss her would be an understatement. But I do want to take this.

Opportunity to memorialize this thank you for her impeccable undulated and unconditional friendship. Vivian was family that I chose! And as I say, see you later, I know that God is saying, "Well Done Good and Faithful Servant"!... Cause you certainly were... Love you beyond words, Queen!!

“ I had the privilege to be related to Vivian. She was more to me than a cousin; she was my sister, confidant, and friend. Our relationship ran deep.

I felt loved, valued, and safe around Vivian and had the fortune to witness others feeling the same way about her.

I miss our talks, sharing stories and jokes that lead to gut-busting laughter, and our prayers together in happy and sad times.

I admired her resilience, fortitude, strength, love for life, values, perspectives, and trust in God.

I thank God for who she was because she was good, and her love was pure and unconditional.

I miss my Vivian dearly! She was irreplaceable, but by the grace of God, I know we will meet again!

RIP my, cuz.

"Til we meet again". 🙏🏻🙏🏻💔👉

“ You were like a second mother to me everytime I came down to visit Florida. You were one of the few people that actually made me feel apart of the family and included. You always were the only person who would always check on my dad. Your light and love simply will transcend always as long as we keep your name alive. Love you Aunt ❤️

“ I Remember I used to eat your popsicles out and now I cannot anymore may you rest in peace ❤️ I always looked forward every year to seeing you during holidays and I don't look forward towards them anymore because you won't be there

“ As I am watching Lifetime, I am remembering when me and Vee would discuss each of the movies. Watching " Fear Thy Neighbor" brings back memories as well. I remember we would talk about the various segments of the show and how events played out. I wish I could call you right now to talk about a new Lifetime movie I recently watched, but i cannot.

“ Vivian was a wonderful sister and will be missed. I think about her all of the time. She was such a caring and kind person. She loved the Lord and is in heaven watching over everyone. She will be missed.
